Death of Mrs. Sweeney

Mrs W H Sweeney, of Hinton, W. Va, passed away on Tuesday morning, Dec 7th, in the home, after an illness of 21 days. She had not been in the best of health for a long time, but was able to be about the home duties until she was stricken with paralysis, which gradually brought her nearer that wonderful experience which we call death. Mrs Sweeney was 63 years of age and leaves a husband and six children—two sons, Joe, of Indiana, and Henry, of Avis, W Va The daughters are: Mrs Leslie Scott, of Avis; Mrs. Clifford Redden, of Charleston; Mrs. L. A. Williams, of Huntington, and Mrs. C A. Griffith, of Scarboro Mrs. Sweeney was converted to christianity when a girl, and united with the Chestnut Grove Baptist church of Buckingham, Va, where she remained a member until the time of her death. She was a loyal christian woman, a true wife and a faithful mother She will be greatly missed not only by her husband and children, but by a host of friends here and elsewhere. The funeral services were conducted from the home Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. H Bean, pastor of the Methodist church, and Rev. W. E. Yates, pastor of the First Baptist church. The body was laid to rest in Hill Top cemetery. The deceased was a Miss Reutton, of Buckingham, where she was well known. Mr Sweeney was reared here near the old C. H., and will be remembered as a son of Bob Sweeney. Sympathy of his friends here is extended.

Marion G. Willis, Jr.

Marion G. Willis, Jr., son of Ex-Mayor M. G Willis, died in Fredericksburg Sunday in a local hospital from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, aged 33 years. He was associated with his father in business, prominent in public affairs, a member of the city council and a leading Mason He is survived by his wife, two children, his father and one sister.

The deceased is remembered here as the husband of Carrie Hunter, and both were here less than a month ago to attend the burial of Mrs Lulu Hunter The widow is a very dear young woman to this entire section, where she was reared and educated. The sympathy of our people is outspoken for her in her bereavement.

Poultry Specialist

County Agent Byrne has secured a specialist in poultry to give demonstrations in culling of poultry. Appointments have been made as follows:

At W. A. Moses', Appomattox, at 9:30 a. m on Thursday, Dec. 16th.

At S. E Anderson's at Stonewall, 2 p. m, same day.

At S. C. Ranson's, 3 miles east of Evergreen, at 10 a. m on Friday, Dec. 17th.

At Hix Bros., at Hixburg, at 2 p. m, on Friday, Dec 17th

Those interested in profitable poultry should take this opportunity to learn something of the business, and know how to weed out the unprofitable fowls

Good tobacco is selling on the market here around 15 cents the pound. The offerings are in the main very poor quality and the average will not exceed 8 cents the pound. The market shows some signs of improvement, but it is still below the cost of production and farmers are not offering except in very limited quantities. The daily sales will not exceed 7000 pounds, when the offerings at this season of the year ought to be 30,000 pounds daily. The tobacco factory is now steamed up and running on full time, and the buyers claim that Appomattox will and can pay as much for tobacco as any market in the State. In the mean time farmers will not part with the weed at prevailing prices.

Don't forget the big sale of J. O O'Brien's personal property Friday, December 17th, at 11 o'clock, at his farm.

Buff Orpingtons—Five pure bred cockerels for sale. W. P. GILLS, 15 2t Appomattox, Va.

Monday morning while its mother was milking the cows the two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Carter fell into the fire and was burned to death. Mr. Carter lives on the farm of Mr. Joel Flood, near Turnes Mill in this county. This makes the third fatal accidental burning in this county within the past month. Much sympathy is expressed for the grief-stricken parents.

Don't forget the big sale of J. O O'Brien's personal property Friday, December 17th, at 11 o'clock, at his farm.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
